

2008 Year-End Rating Explanation

- "C" – Computer Year-End Rating
 - Player can appeal their rating
 - Player cannot be disqualified, nor can they have a grievance filed against their rating
- "B" – Benchmark Rating
 - Player who played in a local, state, sectional or national adult and/or senior state championship
 - A benchmarked player cannot appeal their rating up or down, unless he or she only played in a local playoff
 - Benchmarked players cannot be disqualified
 - All players who are disqualified during the season become benchmarks (B) and cannot appeal.
- "A" – Player with a "C" who has appealed their year-end rating
 - This player is subject to a computer generated DQ but with no match reversal
 - A grievance cannot be filed against them
- "M" – Mixed Doubles Year-End Rating
 - Player can appeal their year-end rating
 - They will start the year with a 0.0 start rate
 - They are subject to computer DQ (all matches reversed), and are subject to a grievance being filed against their rating
- "T" – Tournament Year-End Rating
 - Players in the USTA Southern section should not see tournament ratings unless they are a player who has generated their rating in a section that uses tournament data
 - Treated the same as a Mixed Year-End Rating
- "S" – Self-Rated player
 - They will start the year with a 0.0 start rate
 - They are subject to computer DQ (all matches reversed), and subject to a grievance being filed against their rating